WASHINGTON C. H., OHIO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1919

AMERICANS MUST WEIGH CAREFULLY LEAGUE PACT

Massachusetts Senator in Speech Insists on Fundamental Revision

PLAN MAY ENGENDER STRIFE

Instead of Preventing Conflict is an Opinion of Republican Leader

(By Associated Press)

Washington, February 28.—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts solemnly warned the American people today to carefully weigh the constitution of the league of nations and to insist upon its fundamental revision.

Speaking in the Senate the republican floor leader declared his conviction that instead of safeguarding the peace of the world the league as now planned would engender misunderstandings and strife.

Delivering his first public utterance on the subject the Senator vigorously opposed the plan and made specific recommendations for amendment. He declared as now drafted the constitution would contravene the Monroe Doctrine, strike at American sovereignty and involve America in all foreign disputes, substitute internationalism for nationalism and be of benefit principally to Europe.

Expressing complete sympathy with the popular demand and effort toward an agreement for world peace he said he was not prepared to say there could not be a concert of the nations to safeguard against war, but insisted the agreement should be drawn up calmly and deliberately when the world was at peace and not hastily when war still existed.

Senator Lodge, who is expected to be chairman of the powerful foreign relations committee at the next session which will act on the peace treaty and any plan for a league of nations, was given close attention. He urged that the nation think well before departing from the policies of Washington and said the paramount duty now was to conclude peace with Germany.

"The delays have bred restlessness and confusion everywhere," he said. "Germany is lifting her head. The whimpering after defeat is changing to threats. She is seeking to annex nine millions of Germans in German Austria. She is reaching out in Russia and revising her financial and commercial activities everywhere."

The Senator said that while in the interests of peace it might be necessary to abandon the Monroe Doctrine the policies of Washington and other former leaders, the nation should reflect before it acts.

PEACE WITHIN A FEW MONTHS SEEN BY WILSON

Senator Hitchcock in Speech Gives Added Information on the League Plan

(By Associated Press)

Washington, February 28.—Further important expression of opinion on the league of nations came from President Wilson in his conferences at the Capitol, from Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of the foreign relations committee, in an address to the Senate, and from Senators and representatives who attended the dinner Wednesday night at the White House.

Senator Owen of Oklahoma, Democrat, introduced a resolution advocating amendment of the league to definitely declare that American sovereignty is not affected, while Senator Spencer of Missouri, Republican, offered a resolution proposing that the league be excluded from authority over "purely American questions." Both resolutions went to the foreign relations committee without prospect of action before adjournment of Congress.

President Wilson in discussing the league with members of Congress and also at a conference with newspaper correspondents, expressed confidence in the success of the plan. He also let it be known that he had every expectation of the conclusion of peace within a few months and in this connection said that territorial adjustments presented the most delicate problem remaining. Work on all other questions, he stated, is rapidly nearing completion by the commissions appointed to handle it.

BRITISH USING TROOPS IN MANY PARTS OF WORLD

Stabilizing Influence is Felt in Many Corners of World Where Tommies Are Quartered

London, February 10.—(By Correspondence of Associated Press)—A glance at the maps of Europe and Asia on which are designated positions of British troops shows them to be rather well spotted. For one reason or another The British War Department will consider it necessary to keep troops in some of the out-of-the-way places of the world. While it is planned to reduce most of the forces there is no immediate prospect of the withdrawal of any force.

In the Balkans the British are using their forces as a stabilizing influence against the varied ambitions of the several states. In trans-Caspia, northwest of Afghanistan, they are protecting the population from Turkish excesses, the result of the refusal of the Turks to realize that they have been beaten in the war. In trans-Caucasia they are fighting the Russian Bolsheviks. In northern Italy they are acting as a buffer between the Italians and Czechoslovaks until the peace conference settles differences there. Several commands are in Russia and fairly large forces are being maintained in India, Mesopotamia and northern Persia.

Three divisions of the force sent to Italy in 1917 remain but in considerably reduced numbers. Many men have been demobilized and none sent to replace them. One battalion is at Fiume, another in northern Tyrol. A part of this force will be used for the Allied Army of Occupation in Austria.

The three divisions in the Balkans are stationed in the Dobruja which is the subject of considerable controversy between Rumania and Bulgaria, near Constantinople and the Dardanelles and in the vicinity of Saloniki.

In Egypt and Palestine there might be more trouble with the Turks if a British force was not maintained there while in Mesopotamia it is feared the inhabitants, freed even of the Turkish control, would start fighting among themselves if not controlled by the military. These influences necessitate keeping a certain number of troops in these areas, in the opinion of the War Office officials here.

The British have troops in Russia on the Nurnan coast, south of Vladivostok, and at Omsk while at Vladivostok is a brigade of Canadians.

There is a British garrison of 70,000 in India and it is not expected to reduce this force until just before the heated season begins. Then it is planned to bring home about 20,000 if the shipping facilities are available. This is an unusually large garrison for India but the War and Colonial Offices officials believe a large garrison will be necessary for some time.

ENGINE PLUNGES THROUGH BRIDGE ON THE D. T. & I.

Engineer Andrews, Springfield, Fatally Injured When Trestle Collapses at Spargursville Late Thursday Afternoon

When a 30 foot trestle on the D. T. & I. railroad between Spargursville and Storms collapsed beneath one of the monster D. T. & I. engines Thursday afternoon, three men were injured and one, Engineer William Andrews, of Springfield, will die, according to word received Friday morning.

The fireman and brakeman were both seriously injured but are expected to live.

A special train from Springfield, carrying physicians was rushed to the scene Thursday evening and carried the men to Springfield where they were placed in a hospital.

The engine and one freight car went through the trestle and landed on the creek bed 20 feet below, where the engine was so badly damaged that it will require considerable time and heavy expense to repair it.

Traffic will not be resumed until late Friday or perhaps Saturday.

The scene of the mishap is along a stretch of road where numerous costly wrecks have occurred, and where it is believed more damage from wrecks has taken place than on all the remainder of the road.

WHILE HE SLEPT THIEF STOLE $16

C. L. McClure, who conducts a grocery in the eastern part of the city Friday morning reported that Thursday night while he was peacefully slumbering in a room next to his grocery, with $28 snugly reposing under his pillow to insure its safety, some unknown thief entered the room and with deft fingers lifted three five dollar bills and one $1 bill from beneath his pillow, being careful not to disturb the silver coins lest their jingle arouse him to the nefarious work being carried out.

So far no clue as to the identity of the burglar has been found, it is announced.

FARM NOTES

Clover Seed at $25.

With red clover seed selling for over $25 a bushel, fear is expressed by soils experts of the College of Agriculture that the growing of legumes will be cut short with serious results to the soil. Rather than not to sow red clover, the amount of seed planted may be reduced from eight to six pounds per acre and from two to three pounds of alsike clover, selling at $17.50 a bushel, substituted. In this way the soil needs will be taken care of.

Furthermore, while alsike is usually less desirable from the standpoint of yield, it is much more certain on many soils, particularly on those that are acid. Should conditions be favorable to the development of red clover, it offers no interference, but in case of a partial or entire failure of red clover, the alsike usually makes a fair crop. Mixing alsike seed with that of red clover is thus a fair crop. Mixing alsike seed with that of red clover is thus a partial insurance against clover failure over a large part of Ohio.

Even at a cost of $4 an acre for red clover seed no similar investment in fertilizer will pay as well for the nitrogen obtained as the clover.

Warning To Soybean Growers.

Buyers of soybean seed should take special pains this spring to make sure that their seed will grow.

Many seedmen were unable to dispose of all their stock for 1918 planting and there is danger that some of this seed which was bought at high prices will again be offered for sale for 1919 planting. Soybeans lose vitality rapidly after the first year, and cannot be relied on to germinate well.

The only safe way is to secure a sample and make a germination test before buying. New seed should test from 95 to 99 percent.

Much undeserved discredit has also been brought upon the soybean crop by seedmen selling varieties that are too late to mature. Some good varieties for grain production are Ito San, Elton, and Ohio 9035. Ebony and Medium Green are well suited for hay.

Hold Postponed Institutes.

A number of farmers' institutes postponed on account of the influenza epidemic are being held at different points over Ohio.

Acresage Unjustified.

Attracted by the guaranteed price of wheat and successful production during the past two favorable seasons, many of the farmers from the northern half of Ohio indicate that they expect to sow large acreages of spring wheat this season. Results at the agricultural experiment station at Wooster for the past ten years show that spring wheat yields only half as much as winter wheat. These data lead W. E. Hanger, crops specialist of the Ohio State University, to believe that the crop is as likely to be a failure the coming season as a success. If, however, the farmer has determined that he will grow spring wheat this spring, it is important that he get it planted as early as the land can be put in shape. If it cannot be planted early it seems clear that some other crop should be substituted.

Data from the Wooster station also show that good home grown spring wheat originally imported from the North yields as well as seed imported from the North each year.

NEW EDUCATIONAL PLANS FOR JAPAN

Tokio, January 27.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—The Ministry of Education has prepared a plan for the extension of higher education to cover the next six years and to cost about $22,000,000. Part of this expense has been provided by a gift of $5,000,000 from the Emperor.

It is intended to establish 33 new and high technical schools and to raise all the higher schools to the grade of colleges. This would provide for the teaching of thousands of students who cannot now be accepted by the government colleges, several of which now have desk rooms for only 15 percent of the students applying for admission.

Tokio, January 17.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—The Emperor and Empress will give $500 annually to the Japanese Salvation Army for the next ten years, it is announced.

SENATE PASSES WHEAT GUARANTEE BILL EARLY TODAY

Pomerine Declares the Farmers are Preparing to Defraud the Government

(By Associated Press)
Washington, February 28.—The administration bill appropriating $1,600,000,000 to fulfill the government's guaranteed wheat price to the farmer for the 1919 crop was passed at 12:30 this morning by the senate, without material amendment, and now goes to conference.

No change was made by the senate in the house provisions for import and export restrictions, or in the limitation to June 1, 1920, of the operation of the act. Efforts to reduce the appropriation and to strike out the licensing provisions failed.

After adopting an amendment to deny benefits of the bill to growers of 1919 spring wheat, who did not grow 1918 spring wheat, the senate reversed its action and by a vote of 31 to 23 struck out the amendment.

The only important amendment adopted by the senate was a rider amending the cotton futures act so as to restrict speculation in cotton and give the government larger control over exchanges.

The senate adopted an amendment by Senator Pomerine of Ohio, Democrat prohibiting payment of the government's guarantee to farmers who raise 1919 spring wheat and who did not plan spring wheat in 1918. Senator Pomerine said some farmers were planning to defraud the government by planting an increased spring wheat acreage.

Senator Penrose said under the bill the senate was called upon to appropriate $1,000,000,000 to "make good a mistake" and an "expensive blunder." The speech of Sen. Gore, in charge of the measure, was the only explanation for the bill, the Pennsylvania senator said. He added that he had had copies of the Oklahoma senator's speech at his own expense to send to his own constituents as the only way to justify his vote for the bill.

UNION MEETING FOR NATIONAL S. S. DRIVE

The Union Meeting at the Baptist Church Thursday night was in regard to the International Sunday School drive to be started early in April.

There was a good attendance and intensely interesting addresses were made by Rev. Franklin McElfresh, former Methodist minister here, connected with Inter-National Sunday School Association at Columbus, also Mr. Clarence L. Depew, a business man of Jacksonville, Ill., and another worker. The addresses developed the idea of adjusting the Sunday School program to meet these stirring conditions of this new age, emphasizing the need of religious education for the youth in order to train up a generation that will be capable of meeting the great problems of this time.

Mr. Depew plans to make his headquarters here in the organization of this work.

RAINS DEFACING THE COURT HOUSE

Because of the leaky roof over the south entrance to the court house, the ornamental work and the stone archway is becoming badly weathered and already is so badly defaced that it is very unsightly.

The rains cause the stones to become thoroughly saturated and a little freeze on top of the rain causes the stone to chip off.

Unless proper attention is given the leaky roof it will soon be necessary to rebuild the arch over the south entrance.

"Y.W." MOVEMENT ASSUMING SOUND BUSINESS BASIS

Mrs. Carrie B. Willis Is Chosen Head of Committee Forming Nucleus For Strong Organization.

Movement of Wide Interest To Women of City and County Rapidly Assuming Definite Form.

For some time there has been simmering a project for enlarging the field and operations of the Young Women's Christian Association of Washington and Fayette County by the organization of a Young Women's Christian Association, auxiliary in its nature, with the idea of making this enormous plant a community center for men and women of both town and county.

The introduction of the Young Women's Association and its attendant community features in conjunction with the "Y" would mean a decided innovation of immense possibilities, and those prominently engaged in its promoting express the enthusiastic opinion that it would broaden the field to include women's activities while not conflicting with a distinctive men's organization.

In line with the Y. W. C. A. organization and in order to establish the project upon a working basis a small gathering of interested women assembled at the Red Cross rooms Thursday afternoon to meet with Miss Condon, chairman of the Ohio and West Virginia County Y. W. C. A., to take up the possibility of a local Young Women's Christian Association. Miss Condon, who is a volunteer worker, was sent up by the Cincinnati office to look over the plant and the situation and to give advice from her experience. Following her introduction by Mr. Herbert Brownell, President of the "Y" Board of Trustees, she made an interesting talk, pronouncing as her opinion that the local plant is ideally suited to this movement and expressing the belief that the community idea is the real feature of the Young Women's Christian Association.

Her address outlined various plans for the organization and development of the idea, the deciding of which would rest upon the community. The plan which appealed to the women present as the most feasible was the taking over of the Red Cross rooms in the corner of the "Y" plant as rapidly as they became available, and the employing of a Y. W. C. A. Secretary, with the idea of establishing rest rooms and girls' club rooms. The gymnasium and swimming pool to be turned over to the women certain days of the week.

After considerable discussion of the plan as presented by President Brownell and encouraged by Miss Condon, a provisional committee was appointed to take up the discussion of ways and means with a view to the effecting of such an auxiliary organization. The committee was composed of Mrs. Carrie B. Willis, chairman, Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, secretary, Mesdames Eva J. Penn, V. R. McCoy, Robert Howat, Frank M. Fullerton, Frank E. Haines, Herbert Brownell, Miss Gertrude Gardner, who agreed to sponsor the movement and make the necessary canvas preliminary to deciding such an important step.

GILLETT WILL BE NEXT SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE

Washington, February 28.—(By Associated Press)—Representative Fredrick H. Gillett of Massachusetts was nominated on first ballot last night by the Republican conference as the party candidate for speaker of the next house of representatives.

Representative James R. Mann of Illinois ran second, with Representative Phillip Campbell of Kansas, who entered the race a few days ago after Representative Simeon D. Fess, of Ohio, had withdrawn, far behind. As the Republicans will have a majority in the next house, nomination was regarded by them as equivalent to an election.

The official votes as announced by Representative Horace M. Towner of Iowa, Chairman of the Conference, follows: Gillett 138; Mann 69; Campbell 13; scattering, 5; four for Representative John J. Esch of Wisconsin and one for Representative Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming.

Immediately after the ballot was announced, the election of Mr. Gillett was made unanimous, on motion of Mr. Mann.

After a brief address by the successful candidate, the conference proceeded with the nomination of other candidates for office in the house. W. Tyler Page of Montgomery County, Md., was nominated for clerk by acclamation.

Tilting The Lid

If the recommendation of the joint committee on taxation is followed by the state's lawmakers the municipalities and school districts of Ohio are to have a measure of relief from the present era of financial paralysis and stagnation.

The one percent tax rate limit law is to be suspended, provided the people vote in favor of it, and the limit is to be tilted, temporarily, until the income can catch up at least with the debts already incurred.

The people of Ohio have long ago reached the conclusion that it was impossible to continue a reduction of the income of the municipalities of the state and meet the increased cost of municipal living. Our cities have been and are in worse than "streightened" financial circumstances—they are broke flat.

There has been cast about the one percent tax rate limit law a halo entirely out of proportion to its importance, but politicians and office holders have feared to repeal or modify the law which had been so well advertised and had become so popular.

People have been told by both political party leaders that the tax rate limit law was the one safeguard that stood between their property and confiscation by reckless tax spending officials and many of them have believed it.

After all, the people can watch the expenditure of the public money if they will. More care in the selection of public officials and closer watch on expenditures rather than insolvency voluntarily imposed is the answer.

We might as well look at these questions honestly and courageously.

Wild Talk, Wild Deeds

Sometimes thinking people are forced to conclude that, unless public servants and leaders in politics put a check on their tongues, the fear that ultra-radicalism may develop in the United States is not entirely without foundation.

When men appear in the legislative halls of the state and characterize a proposal, to which they are opposed, as in effect establishing a rule similar to that of the Cossacks of Russia and threaten legislators that, if proposed bills are enacted into law, there will be a Bolshevik uprising, it's time to call a halt.

When a senator arises in the United States Senate, as one is reported to have done, and announces that he would oppose the league of nations even if Christ himself advocated it, it is proof of the existence of a bitterness and intolerance among the leaders which may result in inflaming the public mind to the danger point, unless checked.

Men in high places, men charged with grave responsibility, men who should, and do, know better must take hold of themselves. Men who talk intemperately can very easily lead others to act intemperately.

There is no defense, there is no excuse for these frightful outbursts of temper and men who can't approach the solution of these great questions sanely, calmly, patriotically and discharge their duty and conscientiously, men who talk violence and intolerance and express a determination to remain hostile to the expression of the majority unless it meets with their approval and especially fits in with their political program and personal ambitions, are Bolsheviks and should be treated with as much or more severity as that meted out to the men who, denied educational advantages, run amuck with the torch and the bomb. The ranting orator and public servant is the more dangerous type and far more inexcusable.

Our Next Loan

Americans must square their shoulders now for the tremendous tax burdens which must be carried during the next few years.

Not only are the federal taxes on incomes, profits and "luxuries" (the last mentioned being accorded as many definitions almost as there are people affected) but there must be a tremendous buying of Victory Bonds and war savings stamps.

The fifth loan which the government is to ask of the people is one which will appeal particularly as an investment proposal—the best in the world—one which will make good our promises, pay our debts and bring our boys home from the fields of battle. The next loan will appeal to the deep and the unemotional patriotism of the American people as none of its predecessors have.

It will be subscribed and over subscribed because every good reason dictates that it should.

Never in all history has a nation entered upon the duty of speedy liquidation of so tremendous a sum so optimistically as the United States does in winding up the great war bill with the determination of paying off what in former years would have been an appalling total national debt in the first four years.

A. P. MAN IN THE VERY HEART OF RUSSIA WRITES

Discordant Views Are Found Among Populace at Harbin Where the Usual Chaos Reigns

American Engineers in God-forsaken Place Help Transportation

En Route to Omsk, Aboard British Military Train, January 3.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Harbin was crowded to the bursting point when our train carrying British troops to Omsk arrived there. It was quite impossible to obtain a room anywhere in the town. Prices constantly are rising. The temperature was 10 degrees below zero and the atmosphere dry and bracing.

Hundreds of tiny droskies, drawn by two shaggy-coated Mongolian horses driven by bundled-up Manchus took passengers only at exorbitant rates. The railroad station was swarming with people of a score of nationalities, all hurrying and jostling, incarnating the fear and uncertainties of Russian life of today.

The correspondent visited the largest grocery store and laid in an extra supply of canned goods. The place was jammed with people. It was well-stocked with goods, and many people were buying wines, including champagne.

The great topic of discussion was the future of Russia and everybody seemed to have a different view. All were unanimous, however, that the railroads must be put into better working shape. One heard pleasant things about America and Americans and the conviction was freely voiced that American had territorial designs on Russia.

An American railroad engineer, R. S. Ashby, of Pocatello, Idaho, one of the 200 experts in Siberia under the direction of John F. Stevens to help operate the Trans-Siberian and other railways came aboard our train at Tishkhar, Manchuria. The place was a wild, uncultivated prairie, with hills extending far away into the horizon.

"This place, said Mr. Ashby, 'is called 'No Man's Land', and one might well believe it. He said the American engineers were now assisting the Russian staff officers who controlled different sections of the railway line as far as Manchuli. He lived in a barracks with six other American engineers. They had some baseball in the summer and skating in the winter. The temperature was generally about the same as that of Canada.

One could hardly help feeling that the Americans should know and realize something of what these American engineers are doing, often under obstacles in fulfillment of the American spirit of humanity and helpfulness.

BRITAIN COAL SUPPLY SHORT CLAIM EXPERTS

Industry Hampered by Insufficient Coal Produced by Island Empire

London, January 24.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—More coal must be produced by the United Kingdom if Great Britain's manufacturers are to successfully compete in the world's markets with those of other nations, declare well informed economists. They point to an apparent inability of Great Britain to produce enough coal to keep her industries at top speed and at the same time provide for the comfort of the people.

It is claimed there is an abundance of coal in the United Kingdom. New mines are being opened and developed in South Wales, the chief source of supply for many years, but the cost of operation increases as the deposits near the surface are exhausted.

New fields have been developed elsewhere, notably in Yorkshire. Nottingham seems to have an inexhaustible supply of coal but developments there have been hampered by the absence of many miners drafted for the army.

Experts have discovered that the amount of coal annually produced by each person employed in the mines has declined from 312 tons in 1890 244 tons in 1912. This is contrasted with reports from the United States showing that production of coal there annually has increased from 400 tons per person employed in 1890 to 660 tons in 1912.

This proportionate decrease of British coal production is attributed to two causes—failure to adopt new and improved machinery and systems of operation and demand of miners for more pay and less work.

Confronting a period which the general public has been led to believe Great Britain's most important era of industrial expansion, British industry is demanding cheap coal. Nevertheless, miners in some sections demand a 6-hour working day five days a week while in other sections the men want to be paid for 20 minutes for refreshments, meaning tea.

One writer points out that while the cost of producing coal has doubled in Great Britain since 1886, the cost of production in the United

BRITISH HAILED AS DELIVERERS

(Correspondence Associated Press.) Enroute to Omsk Aboard British Military Train, January 2.—When British troops bound for Omsk reached Manchuli on the edge of Mongolia and Siberia they paraded through the streets of the city led by their band. The inhabitants gathered curiously on the sidewalks. A tall Russian peasant turned and asked: "These troops—do they come as enemies or friends of Russia?" Someone replied: "They come as the friends and deliverers of Russia." The word passed along and soon a cheer went up for the British soldiers.

News of Interest to Women

According to the Year Book of the church for 1919, issued by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America the preponderance of women over men in church membership is not so large as is generally believed.

Statistics compiled from reports made by 197,404 churches, of a total of 228,007 congregations in the United States show there are 19,990,204 women members, as compared with 15,653,958 men.

The proportion of men in the Roman Catholic churches is above normal being 6,149,035 men, as compared with 6,420,360 women. Even the Latter Day Saints, or Mormons, do not vary greatly from the general average, reporting 194,208 men and 209,180 women.

A few denominations approach the two-thirds proportion of women. Episcopal churches, while the Presbyterian bodies are slightly more masculine, with the exception of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, which has 64,770 men and 90,778 women.

The one communion that seems safe from a feminist uprising is the Association of Buddhist Temples, which enrolls 4,798 men and only 941 fair Nipponese.

The smallest communion listed in the Year Book is the Apostolic Church which enrolls seven women and five men makes a truly apostolic dozen.

During the decade the Methodist Episcopal Church, with a membership of 3,178,397, reports an increase of 25 per cent. The Methodist Episcopal Church South, with an added 28 per cent, enrolls 2,108,071 communicants.

The Presbyterian Church in the United States of America enrolls 1,613,957 members, a growth of almost 37 per cent. The Congregational Church, with 90,000 new members, recorded a 13 per cent increase, giving it a total of 790,173 communicants. The Protestant Episcopal Church has 1,098,173 communicants, a gain of 24 per cent.

The Baptist Churches reporting to the Northern Baptist Convention have 1,227,448 members.

The Camp Grove Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. James Campbell Wednesday. After a business session there was an enjoyable social hour and delicious refreshments served. Eleven members and four visitors were present.

Mrs. Robert Wilkins entertained with a delightful children's party, Thursday afternoon from the hours of three to five o'clock in honor of the sixth birthday of her attractive little daughter Dorothy.

After a couple of hours of happy play, the small guests were seated at a long table having a pretty pink birthday cake and six candles in the center.

At each plate were attractive pink crepe baskets filled with Easter eggs, as favors.

The little hostess was the recipient of a number of beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Wilkins' mother, Mrs. Sherman Bishop and Mrs. Harley Flee assisted in entertaining the children who were Betty Ballard, Floris Lipsett, Janet Daugherty, Florence Mabel Sparks, Lois Wilson, Deloris Thompson, Wilma Jones, Mary Anne Story, Mary Louise Mark, Virginia Wilkins, Dorothy Hutson, Jean Wilkins, Ruth Dubpernell and Tom Gardner Murray.

DEATH OCCURS UNDER SAD CIRCUMSTANCES

One of the saddest deaths that has ever occurred in our neighboring town of Williamsport was that of Mrs. Nell Kanuth, wife of the Rev. J. Fred Kanuth, well known minister of Pickaway county, terminating on Thursday evening a combined attack of scarlet fever and erysipelas.

Also quarantined in the house and ill with scarlet fever are the three children, aged six, nine and eleven, the nine year old child very low and not expected to recover.

Mrs. Kanuth was a sister of Mrs. C. E. Lloyd and Mrs. Henry Sparks and during frequent visits at their homes had made numerous friends and acquaintances in this city, who are distressed to hear of this tragedy breaking up a happy home and leaving desolate the husband and three children, separated from the sympathy of friends by the nature of the disease.

Mrs. Kanuth was a woman much loved in her community. Just four weeks ago Mrs. Lloyd and Mrs. Sparks buried their father and during the year five deaths in their immediate family have brought to them intense sorrow that arouses the deepest sympathy of their many friends. The Lloyds are still in the South.

TO BE BURIED HERE

The body of Mrs. Nettie Valentine, sister of H. Stewart of this city, who died in Columbus Wednesday morning, will be brought here for burial and will arrive on the 3:28 train from Columbus Saturday afternoon and be taken direct to the cemetery.

There were twenty medical advisory boards with a total membership of 152. There was a physician on each of the six district appeal boards, and these with Dr. Charles S. Hamilton, of Columbus, who was directing head of the medical work in the state, made up the above total.

CANDIDATES IN MEXICO GOING AFTER OFFICE

Disregard Admonition of President Carranza and Get Busy Campaigning For Highest Office

(By Associated Press)

Mexico City, February 28. — Candidates for election to the presidency of Mexico are organizing and preparing for their campaigns, despite a proclamation by President Carranza urging that such action be postponed until the latter part of this year.

Only a few political papers strongly opposed to the government question the sincerity of President Carranza's declaration that he has no intention of attempting to evade the constitutional provision prohibiting one man from twice serving as President by seeking his own re-election. Those most prominently mentioned as probable candidates for the presidency in 1929 are General Pablo Gonzales, General Salvador Alvarado General Alvaro Obregon and Attorney Aguirre Berlanga, now Secretary of the Interior.

General Alvarado was founder of the Hennequen Regulation Commission of Yucatan. He is reported to have begun negotiations for the purchase of a newspaper in the capital to support his candidacy. It is expected that General Obregon will receive the support of one of the Mexico City papers now owned by a group of National Liberal Party leaders.

UNDER ARREST AND WILL FACE CHARGE OF CHICKEN THEFT

Clark Rumer, old offender on various charges, is under arrest in Wilmington on a charge of train riding, and the authorities of this city have asked that he be turned over to them to face a charge of stealing chickens from Frank Collopy, the theft occurring some little time ago.

Several days ago a youth by the name of Wm. Coder, who is alleged to have been induced by Rumer to accompany him without knowing what was to take place, was fined $10 on a charge similar to that lodged against Rumer. A younger boy, Ralph Coder, because of his tender years, was dismissed with a lecture, it is understood.

With Rumer when he was arrested in Wilmington was Orler Porter, or Orler Ackley, said to be wanted in this city for disturbing a religious meeting.

Both young men will be returned to this city to face the charges.

MUCH DECORATED BRITISH HERO

Frank Maudesly, of Edinburgh, Scotland, a much decorated hero of the British forces, is one of the stewards aboard the liner Canopic which recently arrived at New York with returning American troops. Maudesly is one of the few men who have won the coveted Victoria Cross in the world war. He served fourteen years in the British Army and saw action in many lands. On Christmas Day, 1917, at St. Quentin, he led a daring cavalry charge, after all the officers of the unit had fallen, and saved a large body of British troops from annihilation. That same night he led a raiding party into the German lines and rescued two British nurses, who it was reported, had been sentenced to death on trumped up charges. Maudesly was awarded the Victoria Cross for his great work and was promoted to the rank of Sergeant-Major. He has also received the British Military Medal, the Distinguished Conduct Medal, the Russian Cross of St. George and has been recommended for the Legion of Honor for his achievement before St. Quentin.

PRACTICAL HELP FOR WOMEN WHO WERE LEFT ALONE

Paris, February 1.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Actual work in the establishment of three general workshops for the employment of women and girls whose bread-winners were killed during the world war, has been begun by a committee of religious leaders of the Methodist Episcopal Church in America. The committee, which has the sanction of President Poincare and Marshal Joffre, will devote $2,500,000 to reconstruction and reclamation work during this year.

Among other projects for the relief of devastated regions already started is the purchase of a site for French Orphans at Grenoble, which includes a 250 acre farm to be used in demonstration work among French peasants to teach them the value of modern methods in farming. The committee also gave to the French Protestant Commission $25,000 to be expended in rehabilitation work without regard to religious denomination.

"France needs so many, many things that whatever you do will be of value, particularly in the devastated regions," replied Marshal Joffre, to a question by the religious leaders as to how the Methodist Church in America could best serve France. "When people return to their former homes in the devastated areas and see the frightful destruction that has been accomplished there," he said, "they will need not only material, but also moral assistance. A great tendency to immorality will follow the shock of their loss."

Fond Du Lac, Wis., February 28.—Two persons were killed and several injured late last night when the Catholic Home for the Aged was destroyed by fire. Mary Weinard 80 years old, and John Matthews, 75, the latter a cripple, were succumbed. Sister Patricia suffered a fractured arm while rescuing an aged man.

SERBIAN HEALTH CONDITIONS ARE UNUSUALLY GOOD

Little Typhus or Flu Reported Although Living Conditions Are Very Bad

Nish, Serbia, February 1.—(By Associated Press Correspondence)—The health of the population of Serbia is surprisingly good. There have been few cases of the dreaded typhus or even of influenza. In both the military and civil hospitals the work of Serbian doctors, whose number since the war began has been reduced by more than half is being supplemented by British, French and American physicians.

The American Red Cross has hospitals at Uskub and Monastir and will establish others in Northern Serbia if required. Major Daniel J. McCarthy of Davenport, Iowa, is in charge of the hospital at Uskub, and Dr. R. B. Keyes of Buffalo of the one at Monastir. There are Red Cross doctors and dentists at Nish, Belgrade and other points.

In the Monastir district there is a special Red Cross mission for the purpose of training Serbian peasants in American farming methods and encouraging them to use modern agricultural machinery.

At several places the American Red Cross is distributing food and clothing to an increasing number of persons daily. A shipment of food and medicines which recently arrived at Flume has been sent into Northern Serbia, and soon the Red Cross will be caring for destitute persons in almost every section of the country. This work is being conducted from Saloniki where Major John P. Carey of Colorado Springs, Colorado, acting Commissioner of the Red Cross Mission to Serbia, is in charge. The Commissioner to Serbia, Lieut. Col. Thomas W. Farnam of New Haven, Conn., expects to establish headquarters at Belgrade at an early date.

The weather is extremely cold and fuel is very scarce. The Austrians and Bulgarians deliberately wrecked entire buildings in order to make firewood of the flooring and window frames. There is scarcely any petrol in the country and ordinary kerosene is selling at $5 a quart. The country's coal mines cannot be worked because most of the miners are still in the army.

Railroads and highways are in a lamentable condition and present many obstacles to the task of getting relief supplies to the interior. The enemy forces in their retreat wantonly destroyed large sections of the railroads, and as a result certain regions must rely on automobile transport. Only the most powerful motor cars and trucks can get over the war-worn roads. The army has most of the country's horses and they will not be available for transport or agricultural purposes for some time.

MOVIES DRAW LIKE A MAGNET

(By Associated Press)

Paris, January 21.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—American soldiers on the Rhine now carry their mess kits when a specially popular motion picture is to be shown in the Young Men's Christian Association huts at Coblenz. As F. E. Carson, of Pittsburg, Kans., the Red Triangle secretary in charge of picture work observed, there is no complaint about lack of promptness on the part of the audience arriving. "Either they are in their seats on time or they don't come at all,—because they can't shoe-horn their way in," he says. That is how much the American Army of Occupation likes movies from home.

Six movie shows a night are being given in Coblenz for the American Army of Occupation. Because of the big demand for the film entertainment Mr. Carson recently came to Paris and took back to Coblenz equipment for three more movie shows.

In a building which formerly was a turnhalle, the Y. M. C. A. shows the screen products culled all the way from Fort Lee to Hollywood, entertaining audiences averaging 750 men nightly. So great is the call for motion pictures that fourteen German projecting machines were pressed into service.

"FURNITURE" WAS "LICKER."

London, Ky., February 28.—Deputy United States Marshall R. M. Young at London, searched a freight car billed as household furniture from Dayton, Ohio, to Lynch Mines, Ky., and confiscated about 200 gallons of whisky. The car was shipped by Sam Lucas as Sam Lucas. The whisky is stored in the vaults of the United States Government Building at this place.

London, January 22.—Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Reports to Lloyds Register of Shipbuilding show that, in the United Kingdom, there were 424 merchant vessels of 1,979,952 tons, gross, under construction for the quarter ending December, 1918. Of these, 416 are steamers and 8 sailers.

The fortress proper is occupied by several companies of pioneer troops but the balloon "bed" takes up only a small portion of the enormous rock promontory.

WILSON URGES SOLONS TO ACT

Washington, February 28.—(By Associated Press)—President Wilson spent two hours at the capitol yesterday conferring with scores of Democratic members of Congress, discussing innumerable legislative affairs, measures to expedite the work of Congress, before adjournment next Tuesday, patronage and the league of nations and questions relative to his work at the peace conference.

Throughout the president's stay both senate and house continued engaged at high pressure on their congested calendars and much headway was made during the day. Ultimate failure of several important measures, however, still was regarded by leaders as almost certain.

From 3:30 to 5:30 a constant stream of callers filed into the chief executive's private room off the senate chamber while the president, standing throughout gave and received suggestions on a multitude of subjects. At the close of the visit the president received newspaper correspondents and with great freedom discussed legislative affairs, the proposed constitution of the league of nations and his immediate personal plans.

FAYETTE WINS SWEEPSTAKES

Fayette corn won sweepstakes at the Greenfield corn show held this week, the winning corn being owned and exhibited by Will Bland, of Paint township, and was the same corn which a short time ago won grand championship at the state corn show, having been pronounced the best corn in Ohio last year.

Not only did Mr. Bland win the sweepstakes at the Greenfield show with his exhibit of Reed's Yellow Dent but he also won third place in the mixed class and fourth place in white.

Mr. Bland's corn has been attracting widespread attention for years, and has been pronounced by the most careful selection of seed and keeping the strain pure year after year.

Mr. Bland is one of the best corn judges in the state, as evidenced by the fact that he not only knows how to grow high class corn but time after time has selected ears that have won high places in the biggest contests in the land.

MEMOIR

Addie E. Engle, youngest child and only daughter of Charles and Emma Engle, was born in Fayette county, Ohio, October 29, 1898, and departed this life February 21, 1919, aged 20 years, 3 months and 22 days.

She was converted and united with the Mount Olive M. P. Church December 13, 1914, under the labors of Rev. J. S. Swenk, and was ever afterward a loyal, faithful christian girl. She loved the church and its great work, and might always be depended on to be present and do her part. She was greatly interested in the Sabbath School and could always be found in her place. For more than a year at one time she attended the services of the church and Sabbath School without missing a single service. For several years she served as assistant Secretary of the Sabbath School, and the past year has served as Secretary. And was the incumbent at the time of her death. She was always cheerful and happy and had many friends. Kind hearted, sweet spirited and true, she brought sunshine with her presence wherever she went. She sought to be useful and helpful and was diligent in preparing herself for the responsibilities of life. But just when it seemed that she was on the very threshold of her highest ambitions, disease laid its blighting hand upon her, and although she made a hard fight for life and health, yet strength failed, while everything possible that love and medical skill could do, was done, she meekly bowed to the divine will and was not, "for God took her."

She longed to live to see her brother, Walter who is in the service of his country and is overseas, but this was denied her. She leaves father and mother, two brothers, many relatives and a host of friends to mourn her early departure. She will be missed in the home, in the church and Sabbath School and in the community, but our loss is her eternal gain.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express our thanks to Rev. Henkle, Rev. Gale and the choir for their services, also the many friends who sent flowers and especially the Senior Class and Miss Conn and those friends who sent potted plants while Addie was here to enjoy them.

NEW PRISON TO COST $4,000,000 SAYS ARCHITECT

Columbus, O., February 28.—The present general assembly should appropriate $500,000 and the next assembly an equal sum for construction of the new penitentiary at London, C. E. Richards, architect, who drew the plans, told the senate committee on prisons and prison reform yesterday.

After this expenditure, together with $300,000 still available from funds appropriated by the last legislature, the prison will accommodate 1000 men, Richards said, so that thereafter there will be no hurry about adding units.

Construction will continue at least 15 years in his opinion, and may be 20. Spreading out the work would mean the minimum financial burden on the state at any time.

Taking into consideration proceeds from the sale of the present penitentiary and work by prison labor, the new institution would cost about $3,000,000, Richards said.

If built on contract in the open market, he said, the total cost would be approximately $5,600,000; use of convict labor would reduce it to $4,000,000, and sale of the present prison cut it to $3,000,000.

Allowance of $1,000,000 for the site in Columbus makes the net proposed estimate of buildings at London $4,000,000. This is exclusive of the cost of the prison farm.

FINE ATTRACTION AT MURPHY THEATER

Local theatergoers will look forward with genuine interest to the engagement of "Come Out of the Kitchen," at the New Murphy Theater, Wilmington, Monday, March 3, which will be presented by Henry Miller. There are three acts in "Come Out of the Kitchen" by A. E. Thomas, which is based on the popular novel by Alice Duer Miller.

The scenes are laid in an old-fashioned Virginia home where the young folk of a fine Southern family pretend to be the servants during the period the house is rented to Burton Craue, a wealthy Northerner. Dainty Olivia Daingerfield, who later becomes Jane Ellen, the fascinating cook, with an Irish brogue. It is in a trim Virginia kitchen that the sentimental story, in which Jane Ellen and Burton Craue are the central figures, develops.

A notably fine company is provided by Henry Miller and an artistic production is assured. It is the only company producing the play and the best attraction booked by the Murphy Theater this winter.

The girls had proven incorrigible, it is announced.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Tells Aged People How to Get More Strength.

Here is another link in the chain of evidence to prove that our famous cold liver and iron tonic Vinol creates strength for feeble old people.

Mr. Nelson H. Pease of the National Soldiers home, Tennessee, says:—"I am 74 years of age and was in a weak, debilitated condition, poor appetite and did not sleep well. Vinol gave me a good appetite. I sleep well, and it has built me up so I feel stronger and better, in every way. I strongly recommend Vinol for such conditions as I believe it prolongs life for old people."

FORMER CHAMPION WINS OVER LEONARD

WILLIE RITCHIE

Willie Ritchie, former lightweight champion, staged a remarkable comeback at San Francisco recently when he outfought Champion Benny Leonard in a furious four-round bout. Leonard was made an overwhelming favorite by the fans, the odds being four to ten that the champion would score a knockout. Ritchie weighed in at 140 pounds, and was in the best condition since he lost the title to Welsh. His condition surprised not only Leonard, but the huge crowd that witnessed the affair. Ritchie fought furiously, carrying the fight to Leonard during the entire four rounds. The champion left the ring with his left eye completely closed and pretty well mugged up. The prospects are bright for a longer bout for the title in the near future.

SWISS FORCES ARE INCREASED

Geneva, February 28.—Swiss troops on the Bavarian and Baden frontiers of Germany have been reinforced, owing to unrest across the boundary. A dispatch to The Geneva Journal from Munich says the situation in the Bavarian capital is confused. The central congress, the dispatch adds, is demanding a soviet government. Dr. Wilhelm Muehlen, former director of the Krupp works, at a conference with the central committee, declared that he would only work with parliament. It has been reported that he was to visit Munich and negotiate with the Socialist leaders with a view to forming a new Bavarian cabinet.

All the aristocratic officers of the cavalry regiments in Munich have been arrested. Bail has been refused Prince Joachim, the youngest son of former Emperor William, and Prince Leopold of Bavaria, who are under arrest as alleged leaders of the Mon-

OFFICIALS OF SEVEN NATIONS IN CONFERENCE

Plans for Making Disabled Soldiers Self-Supporting Will Be Given Attention at Big Meeting

(By Associated Press)
 New York, February 27.—Officials of governmental agencies of seven nations and dominions will meet here from March 18 to 22 to plan for the rehabilitation of disabled men, civilians as well as soldiers, and put them back on the payroll. The conference will be held under the auspices of the Red Cross Institute for Crippled and Disabled Men.

The authorities to be represented are the British Minister of Pensions, the French National Institute for War Cripples, the Belgian Military Institute for crippled soldiers, the Italian Ministry of Pensions, the Canadian Invalid Soldiers Commission, the Australian Department of Repatriation, and the Bureau of Re-education and Reconstruction of the American Red Cross in France. Individual organizations of other countries also will be represented.

Authorities in the United States who are expected to attend are representatives of the Federal Board of Vocational Education, which is providing for American disabled soldiers training for self-support; the Division of Physical Reconstruction of the Office of the Surgeon General of the Army, which is providing restorative treatment and education during the convalescent period; the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, which furnishes artificial limbs to soldiers of the American Expeditionary Force, and pays disability compensation; and the American Red Cross Department of Civilian Relief, which, through its home service sections, provides social after-care for disabled men.

To make disabled soldiers or civilians self-supporting rather than to permit them to lose initiative and lapse back upon the support of war pensions or workmen's compensation relief is one of the aims of the conference. Pointing out that many more men are disabled annually in industry than have been incapacitated by military service, the authorities who have an interest in the cripple are planning to give the civilian the same relief as the soldier.

The important part France has played in this war and her awful sacrifice of blood are not the only reasons we should be grateful to her. Many lives are said to have been saved and thousands of surgical operations prevented in this country by a French peasant remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments now imported and sold under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy by Geo. H. Mayr, prominent Chicago chemist. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

WASHINGTON HI PREPARING FOR DELAWARE MEET

More Than Half a Hundred Teams Entered in Big Inter-scholastic Tourney At Delaware.

Washington High School Basketball team, champion of South Central Ohio, is preparing to take part in the Eleventh Annual Inter-scholastic Basketball Tournament at Delaware, O., which opened Friday morning with fifty teams enrolled.

However, it will not be until Friday, March 7th that the Washington team will go to Delaware, supported by a goodly number of fans, to take part in the series.

Friday morning over four hundred Ohio high school athletes and their coaches had arrived in Delaware, to be on deck for the playing of the Northern division preliminaries, of the basketball tournament, held under the auspices of the Ohio Wesleyan University, in Edwards gymnasium.

"Up till noon," Thursday, Director of Athletics Ewing, who has charge of the tournament, announced that, "51 teams had entered. We are expecting a few more to drop in during the few remaining hours." East Tech and West high schools of Cleveland almost at the last minute wired the local athletic authorities that they had joined the Ohio High School Athletic Association thus making them eligible to play in the tourney.

A large number of the players have been quartered in fraternity houses but the number of athletes is so much larger this year, that many have been placed in private homes and at boarding clubs. The tournament is by far the largest ever held in Delaware.

The southern division preliminaries will be played during March 7th and 8th. The finals will come off on March 14th and 15th.

The southern division list of teams entered is: Ansonia, Athens, Cambridge, Canal Winchester, Circleville, Crooksville, Glenford, Grove City, Groverport, Hilliards, Hamilton, Lancaster, London, Lynchburg, Middletown, Millersport, Nelsonville, Newark, Olive Branch, Pataskala, Pleasant Hill, Portsmouth, Powell, Steele and Stivers (Dayton) Springfield, Xenia, Washington Court House, Westerville, Worthington, Greenfield, Shawnee, Piqua, Marysville, Troy, Marietta, Lebanon, and North Lewisburg.
